Agenda Item 1. Sgt. Montgomery reviewed the Sarpy County Sheriff's Monthly Service Report. He reported that the Sarpy County Sheriff's Department along with outside agencies will help at the Sarpy County Fair so there will be plenty of law enforcement presence. He said that the Sarpy County Sheriff's Department continues to educate those driving golf carts and ATVs around town and the safety concerns that come with this. Neitzel asked how parking tickets were going as there seems to be a lot of illegal parking at night still. Neitzel requested a spreadsheet of the tickets issued. Sgt. Montgomery assured Council that offenders were being ticketed and it was going well, he said he could get us a spreadsheet of the tickets. Craney inquired if golf carts would ever be legal on the streets or Sarpy County. Sgt. Montgomery stated that the reason UTVs are legal is because they have safety features such as seatbelts, roll cages, blinkers, brake lights, and have a VIN that require them to be insured while golf carts do not have safety features and are slower moving. Sgt. Montgomery reminded us that the first Tuesday of the month is National Night out and while he had not heard of any neighborhoods inviting the Sarpy County Sheriff's Department out tonight that other neighborhoods have in the past.

Department Reports

Agenda Item 1. Neitzel reported that the shredder is still not working at the sewer plant, but we are working on getting it up and going again after we get the parts needed. Water meters are continuing to go out to those residents that still need a new meter.

Agenda Item 2. Herzog reported that the library's summer reading program is over and new programs will be starting. He also inquired as to when the basketball court flooring was last refinished in the Community building.

Agenda Item 3. Murtha reported that the communication boards are up, and the disc golf signs will be going up next. She also inquired about if we had the room for a pickleball court.

Agenda Item 4. Craney reported that Bryan Cherry, Street Commissioner, and city maintenance staff are pouring concrete on 3rd and Maple Street. They have three more pours scheduled before switching to tarring the streets.

Agenda Item 5. Mayor Roseland reported that he had a meeting with Sheriff Davis this week.
